

SPORT KINGS THAT KEPT CROWNS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 30—With the exception of golf and boxing, leaders in most sports remained in possession of their honors through 1922.

There was practically a new list of champions in football, but that is such an unstable game that many annual changes are forced by natural conditions. Professional baseball retained most of its leading clubs and tennis had no important changes.

In the college field, rowing and track and field, two major sports found the same powers in command.

Winning of the two major league pennants by New York clubs on successive years established a new record for baseball. The Giants, in winning their second successive world's championship, also accomplished a feat that hadn't been equalled in several years.

Baltimore ran away with the International League pennant and won the "little world's series" from St. Paul, the pennant winners of the American Association.

Football had its greatest years and the outstanding sectional teams, if they are disputed as champions, were:

East—Princeton.
Middlewest—Iowa and Michigan.
South—Vanderbilt.
Missouri Valley—Nebraska.
Pacific Coast—California.

Familiar faces were all found in familiar places after a most successful year of tennis. The list of champions below found only one change and that was because William T. Tilden did not defend his British title:

Davis Cup Champions—United States.
World's Singles Champion—William T. Tilden.
World's Woman Champion—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen.
American Woman's Champion—Mrs. Molla Mallory.
British Singles Champion—Gerald L. Patterson.

All the golf crowns changed hands during a spectacular and most interesting season which saw the rapid rise of young players and the decline of the "old guard." The close of the season found:

World's Champion—Gene Sarazen.
British Open Champion—Walter Hagen.
American Open Champion—Sarazen.
P. G. A. Champion—Gene Sarazen.
Amateur Champion—Jesse Sweetser.
Amateur Woman Champion—Miss Glenna Collett.

California won the national and the eastern intercollegiate track and field championship for the second time and the rowing eight of the United States Naval Academy won its third title.

Passage of Georges Carpentier, Johnny Buff and Gene Tunney as ring champions were unusual developments of the year in pugilism. Carpentier dropped all his title when he was knocked out by Battling Siki; Johnny Buff lost his flyweight title to Pancho Villa and Harry Greb beat Gene Tunney for the light heavyweight title.

AMUSEMENTS

DANCED THE TANGO

Gloria Swanson and Rodolph Valentino are Partners

The pleasure seekers at Catalina Island, famous Pacific coast resort, were the recipients of a terpsichorean treat, one evening during the filming of "Beyond the Rocks," the Paramount picture starring Gloria Swanson, and showing at the Lyceum theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The company, under the direction of Sam Wood, had gone to the island to film ocean scenes for this picture, adapted from the novel by Elinor Glyn.

A ball was given at one of Avalon's most palatial hotels and the members of the staff and cast of the picture, after a strenuous day's work, joined the pleasure seekers for an evening's laxation.

The feature of the evening was the perfect dancing of Gloria Swanson, the star, and Rodolph Valentino, her leading man in this picture. Miss Swanson is a charming dancer and Mr. Valentino has made dancing one of his foremost accomplishments. His rendition of the Tango will be recalled in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse."

Jack Holt and Beb Deaniels in "North of the Rio Grande" The story—Two blue ribbon horses are stolen from the ranch of Col. Haddington, who is killed by one of the raiders. Bob, his son, vows vengeance. He becomes head of band. He turns his gold which he gets from bad ranchers over to Father Hillaire at Refugio Mission. Here he meets the daughter of the man who later turns out to be "The Black Rustler," who is stealing cattle from his friend the while posing as "coming clean." The hero's discovery of his identity and his attempt to save him from "a rope party," takes up the rest of the action. "North of the Rio Grande" will be shown at the Lyceum tonight and Saturday.

People aged forty or over are less able to resist attacks of colds, grippe, influenza or pneumonia than young people. Their vital force lacks the powerful resistance of youth. Constipated bowels, sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness and weak kidneys all tend to lower the physical resistance. Millions of people now use Bulgarian Herb Tea to keep the bowels open and improve the blood. Bulgarian Herb Tea taken steaming hot will help break up a cold quickly. "Since a young man I had a liking for liquor and was considered a pretty good judge of it at one time, but constant drinking gave me stomach trouble which became chronic. ## GREECE AND TURKEY MAY WAR AGAIN SOON

IS CONSIDERED AS INEVITABLE AMONG PROMINENT GREEKS

FORMER PREMIER VENIZELOUS VISIONS BREAKDOWN OF THE LAUSANNE PARLEY

FINAL DECISION AS TO PEACE OR WAR IN NEAR EAST RESTS WITH TURKS

(By United Press)

Europe today stood at the cross roads, one path leading to war, the other to peace.

The Lausanne conference was suspended while Ismet Pasha, chief of the Turkish delegation prepared a reply to the allied demand that the Turks permit international courts to which cases involving foreigners would be tried.

There was an obvious effort on the part of the allies to make it appear that Turkish obstinacy on this point is responsible for the impending disruption of the conference, while Ismet desires the world to believe that British greed for the rich Mosul oil fields in Mesopotamia is the real reason. Ismet's reply probably will try to throw the blame on Britain.

Meanwhile, the British cabinet met ostensibly to discuss reparations, but the question of hostilities in the Near East probably was taken up also.

Reports from Athens said Greece believes renewed war with the Turks is inevitable.

London, Dec. 29.—Resumption of war between Greece and Turkey is considered inevitable in the former's country, according to a cable from Athens to the Daily Express today.

Former Premier Venizelos, envisioning a breakdown of the Lausanne conference, has telegraphed the Greek revolutionary government urging that reinforcements be rushed to the Greek army at Thrace and 1920 and 1922 military classes be called to the colors, the Express correspondent cabled.

Venizelos declared that the entire Greek army should be sent to Thrace, leaving only one regiment at Athens.

The same advices report that Tangelos, Greek commander in Thrace, has entrained secretly for Salonika.

Awaits Word from Ismet Pasha
Lausanne, Dec. 29.—Final decision as to peace or war in the Near East rests with the Turks today.

The conference stood practically suspended waiting for word from Ismet Pasha. The Turkish delegates have a few days in which to reply to allied insistence that mixed tribunals and judicial guarantees replace capitulations.

If he made final formal rejection of the demand, it would mean the immediate end of the peace conference, delegates declared.

Meanwhile, the British were reported making preparations to meet an open break with a return to armed watchfulness at the straits. A British fleet was reported under full steam for the Dardanelles.

SHOPLIFTING CHARGE

Fargo, Dec. 29.—Victor Martin, Minneapolis, was released by Fargo police today, but his wife and Dorothy Dyson of St. Cloud, were held in district court under $1,000 bond each on charges of shoplifting. More than $800 worth of goods were found in their rooms, according to police.

TWO MORE IRISH REBELS EXECUTED

More Prosperity for American Business

PARTIAL SETTLEMENT OF THE BIG RECEIVERSHIP CASE REPORTED MADE

An order of the district court made by Judge W. S. McClenahan yesterday, indicates that a partial settlement of the affairs of the Cuyuna-Minneapolis Iron Company is about to take place. Upon the petition of Mal Clark, the receiver of the company, which shows that all of the creditors of the company, with claims aggregating half a million dollars, have agreed to accept 60 cents on the dollar, with interest, in full settlement, providing that they are paid by tomorrow, the court has granted the receiver permission to accept from the stockholders, in payment of their stock liability, 40 cents on each of the million shares. The result of this settlement will be to give to the creditors a good percentage of their claims at once, and to greatly lessen the enormous loss already suffered by the stockholders.

John R. Henninger, of Butler, Pa., the attorney for the receiver in Pennsylvania, arrived in Brainerd yesterday to take part in the settlement, and he and Mr. Clark are now in Minneapolis, attending to the final details. This settlement will not entirely close the matter as there still remain hundreds of suits in a number of different states to be brought against the stockholders who have refused to come into the settlement. The court also made an order yesterday setting the fees of the receiver and his attorneys for their services to the first of the year. Mr. Henninger was allowed a fee of $15,000 for services as attorney in Pennsylvania. Paul J. Donovan a fee of $1,000 as attorney in Illinois; Thomas D. O'Brien, of St. Paul, a fee of $5,000 as general attorney, and Mal Clark a fee of $25,000 as receiver.

HIRAM JOHNSON IN BITTER ATTACK ON SENATOR BORAH

SARCASTICALLY ASSAILS HIS PROPOSAL FOR WORLD ECON-OMIC PARLEY

DECLARES HE WOULD RATHER HAVE UNITED STATES IN LEA-GUE OF NATIONS

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 29.—Bitterly and sarcastically assailing Senator Borah and his proposal for a world economic conference, Senator Hiram Johnson of California in a speech in the senate today charged that Borah's plan was in the interest of the international bankers.

He declared he would rather see the United States in the League of Nations than in such a conference as Borah suggested.

Just before Johnson started his speech, Senator Bursum of New Mexico introduced a resolution for a loan of one billion dollars to Germany to be used on purchasing German products and farm implements in this country. The loan will be secured by German industrial securities.

Johnson, who shared with Borah the leadership of the irreconcilables in the fight against the League covenant, turned on his former associate all the vehemence he formerly reserved for their joint opponents. He indirectly declared that Borah was being made the tool of propagandists and the international bankers and used Borah's own words to convict him of now favoring American embroilment in Europe.

NEW YORK'S COAL

SUPPLY DWINDLING

(By United Press)

New York, Dec. 29.—New York's coal reserve dwindled to a two days supply as a blizzard howled over the city today.

Fuel administration officials estimated reserve tonnage undelivered to dealers at 61,500 tons. Hundreds of tenements reported only a few days supply on hand.

One man was killed and another injured in accidents during the storm here. The hurricane blew in from the sea, wrecking two schooners on Long Island sound.

ASK AMERICA TO BRUSSELS PARLEY

(By United Press)

Paris, Dec. 29.—France today through semi-official channels advanced a suggestion whereby the proposal that President Harding call a world economic conference can be given effect without the American president taking any further steps.

It was pointed out that the plan of Senator Borah apparently is identical with the plan for a financial conference at Brussels next month, to which the United States has been invited.

The Brussels conference, the French said, presents an unequalled opportunity for the United States to make its voice heard in a world economic conference.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY

OCCURS IN CHICAGO

(By United Press)

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Joseph Lang, Hillsboro, North Dakota, died today from self inflicted wounds after shooting his cousin, Mrs. H. B. Merrill.

Police said Lang met Mrs. Merrill in Hillsboro and followed her to Chicago where she lived with her husband, a physician. Thousands of theatre goers watched when Mrs. Merrill was shot while jumping from a taxi cab on Michigan Boulevard to obtain the protection of two policemen after a quarrel with her escort.

Lang shot himself before the officers could reach the cab. Mrs. Merrill is not expected to live.

EXPECT TO ARREST

SUSPECT IN CASE

(By United Press)

Marshfield, Wis., Dec. 29.—Feeling is running high here against the person or persons who sent the package containing the infernal machine to the James R. Chapman home and which exploded Wednesday night giving fatal injuries to Mrs. Chapman and seriously injuring her husband.

According to District Attorney Calkins of Wood county, an arrest of a suspect will be made today. The person suspected, according to the district attorney, is a land owner in this district who is said to have upbraided Mr. Chapman on several occasions for his alleged over assessment on his land.

MEYER OF WISCONSIN

NEW HEAD OF I. C. C.

(By United Press)

Meyer succeeds Charles C. McChord who served this year. Meyers previously served a term as chairman of the commission in 1916.

OPTIMISM BASED ON YEAR VIRILE ACHIEVEMENTS, ETC.

DESPITE UNSETTLED ECONOMIC CONDITIONS ABROAD, UPWARD SWING IS ON

PRODUCTION IN BASIC INDUS-TRIES INCREASING, IRON AND STEEL IMPROVE

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 29.—With an optimism based on a year of virile industrial and mechanical achievement, the Federal reserve board and Department of Commerce in year end analysis and forecasts of the nation's business, today united in predicting a greater prosperity for American business men in 1923.

Despite unsettled economic conditions abroad and difficulties in many domestic industries, both government agencies see for American business a steady upward swing.

The federal government with a reduction of the total interest bearing debt of the country of $667,000,000 in the twelve months ending December 11th, blazed the way toward fiscal solidarity for the country's economic structure the department of commerce claimed.

Production in basic industries is increasing, contrary to the general rule at this time of year. Textile mills were 20 per cent more active this year than last. Iron and steel production increased from 69 to 70 per cent, petroleum 15 per cent, coke 40 per cent, paper 20 to 30 per cent, rubber 40 per cent, automobiles 50 per cent, building construction 50 per cent, lumber 35 per cent, leather 25 per cent, sugar 40 per cent. Outstanding declines were seven per cent in bituminous and 47 per cent in anthracite coal due to the strikes.

Despite pessimism over the plight of the farmers, agricultural crop values for 1922 according to the board exceeded by 25 per cent the value of the 1921 crop values, or only 17 per cent less than the record breaking total of 1920.

Increased demand for labor stimulated by increasing industrial prosperity and curtailed immigration practically eliminated an unemployment problem this winter, the department of commerce stated. Labor shortages are even beginning to become manifest notably in the steel mills, textile establishments and in the construction industry.

DRIVE ON COURTS ON LIQUOR CASES

FEDERAL COURTS PLAN TO RE-LIEVE CONGESTION, MORE
JUDGES ARE NAMED

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 29.—An intensive drive by the Federal Courts to clean up the present congestion of liquor cases with a view to making convictions keep pace with the arrests probably will come out of the conferences now being held here between Chief Justice Taft, Attorney General Daugherty and Federal Circuit judges.

As the first move in the campaign, President Harding has started to fill the 21 district judgeships which are now vacant. Most of these vacancies are among the 24 additional judgeships created by congress last summer especially to handle liquor cases. Three new judges were named yesterday.

SARAH BERNHARDT IS CALLED OUT OF DANGER

Paris, Dec. 29.—The condition of Sarah Bernhardt shows marked improvement today. The physicians believe she is out of danger but she must remain in bed for some days, perhaps a week.

MILWAUKEE ROAD TO ELECTRIFY LINE BETWEEN TWIN CITIES AND LA CROSSE

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Dec. 29.—Negotiations for electrification of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road between the twin cities and LaCrosse are under way. The distance is 129 miles, and double tracks.

The road skirts the Mississippi river and Lake Pepin, a beautiful scenic stretch.

Officials of the St. Paul road have been in conference with officials of the Minnesota-Wisconsin Power and Light company of Eau Claire discussing capacity and power costs. The power company has 100,000 horse power available now, and if a contract is signed with the road, they will add another 100,000 horsepower.

In time the road plans to electrify its double track system all the way between Chicago and the Twin Cities. Traffic over the line is heavy. The St. Paul road now has made 600 miles of its lines electrified in the Rocky Mountains.

POULTRY SHOW BROADCASTED

Clover Crest Poultry Farm Manager
Praises Show Here and Tells of Work of W. E. Stanfield

The effects of the Crow Wing County Annual Poultry Show are still being felt, and each echo seems to be more far reaching than its predecessor.

The latest is a letter from Mrs. C. J. Street, whose husband is the manager of the Clover Crest Poultry Farms near St. Paul. This letter is written to Secretary O. J. Bouma, and is as follows:

Dear Sir: We received the check in payment of the poultry prizes won by our birds at the Brainerd Show. Accept our thanks for same.

We certainly enjoyed the Poultry Show and have not been to half so good a one since. Pine County only had about 250 or 300 birds, not of as good quality as those exhibited in your city. There were only about forty leghorns. Your Association is surely to be congratulated upon the quality and quantity of the birds you got together.

Did you people hear the radio talk about the Brainerd Show that W. E. Stanfield broadcasted last week? He surely gave the show a good send-off. It made good advertising for Brainerd and Crow Wing County.

Mr. Street gives a talk on the care and selection of breeding stock at the Poultry Short Course at the University Farm next week.

Thank you for your courtesy and for the enjoyment we experienced in attending the Brainerd Poultry Show.

Mr. Stanfield, poultry expert in charge of the judging at the Crow Wing County Show, has expressed himself several times as being most favorably impressed with the exhibits at this show, and his radio talk was undoubtedly heard in many sections of the country, thus putting Brainerd in the limelight as a poultry center.

GOT NAME FROM TROJAN KING

History Professor Says Britain Was Ancient Land Before the Landing of the Romans.

Professor Gordon, Merton professor of English literature in the University of Oxford, lectured to the English association at the London School of Economics on "The Trojans in Britain," and the report of his talk given by the London Morning Post, sets forth some statements new to the general public.

Professor Gordon said he found it difficult to understand why so often the history of Britain taught to schoolboys began with Julius Caesar, for Britain was quite an old land by the time the Romans arrived. The first Britons were the Trojans, and Brutus, the first British king, gave his name to the island.

Brute, or Brutus, great grandson of Aeneas, gave Britain its first established population since the flood. He founded a second Troy in Britain. On his voyage he encountered sea monsters known as sirens, which Geoffrey imagined to be a species of whale.

Brutus landed in Britain, where he found nobody but a few giants, whom he rounded up in their caves. One giant was clothed in furs made up of the beards of the kings he had killed. Lud, one of the associates of Brutus, gave his name to London and to Ludgate. The Trojans represented the best blood of Europe; hence it was quite natural that Cymbeline's son should marry a daughter of the emperor of Rome.

RADICALS IN MOVE TO 'SCRAP' STATE NONPARTY LEAGUE

CONVENTION TO DECIDE QUES-TION MAY BE CALLED SHORT-
LY, MAY OUST TOWNLEY

Says Charles B. Cheney, of the Minneapolis Journal:

"Scraping" the Nonpartisan league in Minnesota, and its ally, the Working People's Nonpartisan Political league, is favored by a large element among the radicals. State conventions to decide this question may be called in the near future, it was reported today.

The proposal to be decided in these conventions, if they are called, involves a vital question of policy and future control of the radical movement in Minnesota.

It is proposed to "scrap" the present Nonpartisan league state organization—both of them, in fact. The league as such would disappear from the political map of Minnesota. Its membership would be merged into the farmer-labor party and would function hereafter in one organization instead of three.

A. C. Townley would be eliminated from control and from any share in the management of the movement in Minnesota. His "balance of power" plan would receive a decisive setback. He and his organizers would cease to collect funds from Minnesota farmers.

Collectors still would be abroad, however, if the ideas of Thomas Van Lear and his following prevail. They would assess farmers and city workmen alike for "dues" in the farmer-labor party, thus adopting the Townley financial scheme after discarding him politically.

The subject was discussed at a recent meeting of the merrill-cent meeting of the farmer-labor party state committee.

DANGER POINT IS PASSED IN FUEL

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 29.—Federal Fuel Distributor Conrad E. Spens today stepped out of office assuring President Harding in a final report that barring extreme weather, the country has passed the danger point of the fuel situation this winter.

Spens, who today submitted to the President his resignation, effective January 1st, with his report, will leave Washington tonight for Chicago to resume his duties as vice president of the Burlington railroad system.

HEAD OF FBREWING FIRM FOUND DEAD

(By United Press)

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 29.—William J. Lemp, 55, president of the brewing company here bearing his name, was found shot to death in his office today.

Lemp, the third member of the famous brewing family to meet a violent death, had been shot twice near the heart. A revolver was found at his feet. There was no note of explanation.

WEALTHY BACHELOR BRUTALLY KILLED IN LONELY SHACK

NICHOLAS TRIFF OF ALLOUEZ,
WISCONSIN, FOUND WITH BODY MUTILATED

HACKED WITH AN AX AND BEAT-
EN TO A PULP, COMMUNITY
SEEKES WITH VENGEANCE

(By United Press)

Superior, Wis., Dec. 29.—"Little Austria" seethed with vengeance today following one of the most brutal murders on record.

Nicholas Triff, wealthy bachelor of Allouez, Wisconsin, was found dead in his shack hacked with an axe and his body beaten to a pulp with a sledge hammer.

Jacob Vesuil, owner of the cabin where Triff lived, was arrested five hours after the murder and spirited away from the angry Austrians who searched for him with hatchets and shotguns.

Neighbors of Triff, forty and popular, heard a commotion in his cabin at supper time last night. They found his body on the floor, his face an unrecognizable mass, the room spattered with blood and his body smashed. A blood stained axe and sledge hammer were found nearby.

Vesuil had been seen in the cabin some time before. He was seen a few minutes later, his clothing splashed with blood, waiting for a street car.

Mrs. John Connolly, wife of a patrolman, saw Vesuil. She reported to other husband. A search began.

Patrolman Connolly, knowing the penchant of Austrians to return to the scene of their crimes, lay in wait. Five hours later Vesuil returned to the cabin. He had been down town to a hearty dinner. While neighbors of Triff searched frantically with hatchets and shotguns for the murderer, Patrolman Connolly spirited Vesuil away and lodged him in the county jail.

Vesuil denied the murder, but police are confident he was the attacker. They plan to place formal charges against him today.

Vesuil is 27 years old and lived in a cabin 200 feet from the one Triff rented.

Triff is known to have $5,000 in a bank here and is reported to be the owner of considerable property. He worked on the ore docks.

Vesuil was arrested on a charge of murder in municipal court this morning and pleaded not guilty. He demanded a chance to explain, and a hearing was set for January 5th. He was committed to the county jail and held without bail.

ODD FORM OF RESIGNATION

Acceptance of Official Position Automatically Ejects Member From British Parliament.

In the cases of Arthur Henderson's and some other notable defeats in the English parliamentary elections the comment of English papers is to the effect that, as a matter of course, a seat will be found for the person defeated.

This means that some generous and supposedly important member of the party who has been elected will resign and that his constituency will be kind enough to elect the defeated man. The technical process of such a proceeding is odd and, to an American, amusing.

The elected member takes "the stewardship of the Chiltern Hundreds." That is, he accepts a commission as a royal official for the district once known as the Chiltern Hundreds, and, having done this, he can and must resign his membership in parliament, as a member cannot hold a royal commission of honor and profit.

Thereupon some one is elected in his place, and he forthwith resigns his appointment to the Chiltern Hundreds, an office which has no duties, but a nominal salary of 20 shillings, which makes it a "place of honor and profit," and hence is inconsistent with membership in the house, and the office is open for the next member who wants to resign.—From the Outlook.

SKOVGAARD'S HAND INSURED $50,000

Here is a picture of the $50,000.00 hand belongin to Skovgaard, the Danish violinist, who is to appear at Koop hall Monday, New Year's evening, at eight o'clock, under the auspices of the Business & Professional Women's club. It took Skovgaard thirty years to make this hand. To the ordinary eye it is not very different from other well developed hands. Yet it has the power almost automatically to express through the violin the exquisite beauty and marvelous tone pictures which the player feels and sees as he interprets the work of the masters. As an investment it represents a man's life work. But it represents, too, the inborn gift which no money can buy. That is why it is insured for $50,000.

Press Notes From Europe Compared with those of our own United States, show that the musical critics both here and abroad are agreed that Axel Skovgaard is a consummate artist. The Neue Preussische Zeitung, Berlin, Germany, says: "Skovgaard controls alike the grand old Stradivarius upon which he plays, and the feelings of his audience, with all the inborn ease of a genius. His is a faultless technique combined with the deepest musical feeling." The Times, London has this to say of his playing: "To Skovgaard belongs a mastery dignity, unalloyed by mannerisms and shallow display. An artist of the scholarly order, he devotes himself with seriousness to the music which he prefers."

From Duluth, Minnesota, comes these words of praise: "How he (Skovgaard) can play the violin! It is a long time since a really great artist has had the courage to play 'Last Rose of Summer' and 'Suwannee River' on a concert stage. He played both of these, and the exquisite tones of his Strad drove the melody of those two loved selections home to every heart. Skovgaard, a Stradivarius, and 'Suwannee River'—There is nothing finer!"

"TWIN LANTERNS"

Tearoom of W. E. McMahon Redecorated, Will Serve Chicken Dinner New Year's Eve

The building adjoining the Brainerd Dispatch on the south, and formerly occupied by Mrs. Vera Husted, had been remodeled inside an out, redecorated, and is now the home of the "Twin Lanterns Tea Room."

The idea of such an establishment met with instant success, and W. E. McMahon, the proprietor, is well pleased with the patronage this cozy little eat shop is receiving.

The "Twin Lanterns" will serve especially dainty luncheons, hot drinks, ice cream dishes, parfaits, frappes and mixed drinks, in addition to regular menues or meal times. Decorations in the room are unique. The lighting fixtures are Japanese lanterns which illuminate the interior with a soft glow, and give just the right atmosphere to the oriental setting.

Full of Fresh Flavor

Anderson-Ryan Coffee Co., Duluth, Minn.

The tables, too, are different, and have brought forth much favorable comment. The new tops for these tables have just arrived, and are being set up. Mr. McMahon states that the value of these pieces of furniture makes it necessary to take out special insurance on them.

A complete line of confectionery will be handled, "Sonny Boy" candies the Twin Lantern's own brand will be sold exclusively.

Although the tea room was opened unofficially a week ago, the formal opening is set for New Year's Eve.

when a fine chicken supper will be served at midnight. To accommodate the patrons, reservations must be made well in advance. From the patronage already received, it is certain that every table will be taken by those who will watch the old year out and the advent of 1923.

Mr. McMahon is a firm believer in advertising, and is watching closely the results of his publicity in the Dispatch. It is interesting to note that this advertising sold a month's supply of "Sonny Boy" candies in just three days. A special half hour candy sale on last Saturday evening cleaned out the supply in less than half that time.

OIL AND ARABS

THIS is no time in which to impute unworthy motives to those who are seeking to bring about a solution of world problems. Our age is super-critical, and we demand a personal and national idealism of others which individually and nationally we do not ourselves attain.

All nations are influenced by motives in which self-interest predominates, and this is true even though certain humanitarian motives may be bound up with the self-interest that so largely determines action.

There is no question but that all of the nations represented at Lausanne are seeking to secure their own advantage in their dealings with the Turks and with each other. Great Britain is in a position where her stand is likely to subject her to criticism. Arabs and oil are mixed in the territory which Britain seeks to hold. But this can be confidently affirmed: In guarding the oil Britain will protect the Arabs, or in protecting the Arabs she will guard the oil. Which is dearer to the British government, the oil or the Arabs, is a matter that may easily be guessed at in an age that is not particularly given to placing human interests first.

The conference at Lausanne is serving a useful purpose by compelling the nations to show their hands. When all the cards are on the table, and each nation knows what every other nation holds, there will be a chance of deciding just how the game stands. Of course the nations, all of them, are playing for personal advantage. Nothing other than this can be expected. And in the end what is of advantage to the nations in conference will be of advantage to the territories under discussion. No one would suggest that the Arabs would be better off under the control of the Turks than under the protection of Britain. And even though they win such protection because they are where the oil is, the protection protects just as completely. In fact the greater the wealth of the territory the greater is the likelihood of full protection.

It is also true that the self-interest of the nations, in developing the resources of such territories, will bring gain to those who occupy them. Natural resources would lie undeveloped were it not for the resourcefulness of the nations that have developed ability along this line. The natives could not undertake such development.

PREVENTION OF CRIME

It is not surprising that the Minnesota crime commission should recommend that a state constable force be organized in Minnesota. While a subcommittee of the crime commission did not go so far as to make such a demand, but asked that the matter be studied and a recommendation made later, the commission itself approves the idea of a state constabulary.

The commission expects to face objections to such a proposal but is face to face with the fact that criminals are running at large, committing horrible crimes and escaping the penalty. When men are shot down in cold blood, as Orville P. Walby, World War veteran, was shot to death in his grocery store in Minneapolis on Saturday night as he stood with his hands above his head in obedience to the command of his murderers, it is to be expected that those who are entrusted with the duty of making recommendations for the prevention of crime will be led to take a stand for what, were it not for such horrible crimes, they would not think of asking.

Drastic methods must sometimes be adopted to gain desired ends, and in seeking to check the spread of crime in the State of Minnesota such methods must be used as are likely to achieve the end in view. A patient in seeking the recovery of his health is not too much concerned about the taste of the medicine that is administered. The important thing with him is the cure. And this is true of the medicine which the crime commission prescribes to cure our social ills.

The facts of the situation are on the side of the commission in its recommendation. Present police forces seem to be unable to cope with the criminal forces at large in this state, and whatever method will result in safeguarding the lives of unarmed citizens, who are in danger of being shot down in cold blood, should be introduced. A drastic cure is sometimes demanded by a violent disease.

CARRYING EQUIPMENT OF CARRIERS

ONE of the demands that is made upon any enterprise is that it do what it is expected to do. That is, if railroads contract to carry freight and passengers, they are expected to carry freight and passengers, and any alibi that the roads may offer to excuse their failure to make good does not relieve them of their obligation to fulfill their function.

Because of the strike of shopmen during the summer and fall of 1922, the railroads may claim that they were handicapped in their attempt to function up to the demands of the territories they serve. This, however, is not a satisfactory reason for failure to serve the nation. The government and people of the United States were not responsible for the strike. These suffered inconvenience because of it. The strike was over a matter that concerned the railroads and their employees.

There are always two parties to an industrial dispute, and a certain amount of blame attaches to both parties, because it proves that these two parties cannot conserve the public interest by settling their grievances without a show of strength, which results in loss to the public in general.

The railroads are answerable for any failure to fulfill their function as carriers, just as the merchant is responsible for the deficient service his clerks may offer to his customers. The public is not responsible for either the clerk's neglect or the shopmen's strike. Excuses do not carry freight and produce, as the farmer of the Northwest knows to his sorrow. The interstate commerce commission is justified in investigating the reasons for the failure of the railroads to carry the produce of the people they serve. The Esch-Cummins law should work both ways—protecting the roads against loss, and protecting the people against inadequate service. The nation has a right to demand adequate equipment and service.

CAPITAL punishment will not restore the life of the victim nor take the life of the uncaught criminal. Prevention is better than cure and even hanging doesn't cure the murderer, it destroys him.

GIVEN CORDIAL GREETING

Chevrolet of 1923 Has Many Improvements, Radiator Withstands Severe Cold

The phenomenal greeting that the new Superior 490 Chevrolet has been accorded is causing considerable comment in automobile circles. So great has been the demand for this model that in 1922 the sales were four times what they were the previous year.

The popularity of the Superior 490 is attributed to the many improvements in construction and style of bodies. This change was made late in the year 1921. New front axle bearings were adopted, a better rear axle made and improved clutch developed. Every part of the car that had been giving any trouble was redesigned.

As to the changes made the following may be of interest: In the body and top twenty-two changes have been made, in the front axle and wheels, 10, in the rear axle, six, in the transmission, seven, in the motor, 10, and in the chassis 13, a total of 68.

Not satisfied with these, Chevrolet made 26 additional changes in the new 1923 model which is now having such a remarkable run of sales. Officials who have been responsible for the improvements modestly say that they have but followed the dictates of the public. In the 1923 model a new worm steering gear has been installed, a heavier frame than has been formerly used, and a radiator that will not crack or leak when its contents are frozen.

Closed body types seem to be in the biggest demand for the coming season, and these bodies are built especially for Chevrolet by Fisher, in factories which have been located adjoining the assembling plants of the motor company.

Chevrolet now has fourteen plants in operation and as its business expands several additional branches in strategically located cities will be built.

The Sherlund Co., local dealers, are preparing for a large run on Chevrolets during the 1923 season, and have placed their order early to be sure that they will receive their full allowance.

WILLIAM WOOD DIED SUDDENLY

Retired Lumberman Expired Thursday Afternoon at Home of His Daughter, Mrs. Herbert Scott

RESIDENT OF CITY 30 YEARS

Associated at One Time with F. C. Bolin—Was a Member of Brainerd Elks Lodge

The community was shocked this morning when the news of the death of William Wood, pioneer lumberman, became known.

Mr. Wood seemed to be in his usual good health on Thursday, and had been down town in the afternoon, returning to his home shortly before four o'clock. No one was in the house when he arrived, and he lay down on the couch, as was quite often his custom.

When Mrs. H. E. Scott, his daughter with whom he has been living, came home at about 4:20 she found him just as he had dropped off to sleep. Doctors were summoned immediately, but life had evidently passed out before he was found.

William Wood was born in Guelph, Ontario, Canada September 6th, 1850. He moved to Saginaw, Mich., when a young man, and then to Eau Claire, Wis., where he was married to Miss Minnie Simon in 1883.

To this union three children were born, all at Eau Claire, Mrs. Ella E. Scott of Brainerd, Miss Mildred Wood and Tom Wood of Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Wood has resided with her children in the west for the past three years.

Mr. Wood came to Brainerd from Eau Claire about 30 years ago, and for some time thereafter followed his vocation of lumberman. He was associated in the early days with F. C. Bolin, and the firm name of Bolin & Wood is still very familiar to the old timers of this section.

Mr. Wood retired from the lumbering business some years ago. It was his plan to go to Los Angeles next spring to join his wife and children. Several times in the past he had signified a similar intention, but his love for this part of Minnesota and his many old friends who live here, had been an attraction which he could not overcome.

The only lodge in which Mr. Wood held membership was the B. P. O. Elks, to which order he had belonged for many years, and to which he gave all of his attention, being very regular in attendance.

Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made, awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Wood and children from California, which will not be until the first of next week.

The Dispatch joins the many old friends in offering sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

BRAINERD MEN AT THE HEARING

C. M. Babcock Presides at Little Falls Meeting on Routing Road Between Pillager and Motley

HENRY I. COHEN GIVES DATA

Cass County Had Delegation Present Too—Matter Taken Under Advisement by Mr. Babcock

A delegation from Brainerd consisting of George D. LaBar, S. R. Adair, R. R. Wise, Henry I. Cohen, Mons Mahlum, A. W. Moulster and Walter M. Murphy, attended the highway hearing at Little Falls on Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was called by Highway Commissioner Charles M. Babcock and his chief highway engineer, John Mullen, to hear proposals for the temporary routing of Trunk Highway No. 2, formerly known as the Black Diamond Trail, between Pillager and Motley.

At the hearing, Mr. Cohen, who has long sponsored the Black Diamond, explained much of the history of that highway, stating that when the route was first located, it was to go by the south road from Pillager to Motley, which is about three miles longer than by the north trail, but it was believed at that time that its better condition over more level country, more than made up for this extra mileage.

Since that time, the north road has been improved. It passes through quite a hilly section, but the hills have been cut down and the road bed improved.

Quite a delegation from Cass county attended the hearing, since that county is especially interested in the north route through their territory. Little Falls favors the south route, since that road passes through a part of Morrison county.

Mr. Babcock took the matter under advisement, and will make his report and decision later.

He spoke at length concerning his plans for the coming season, stating that it is his intention to ask the legislature this winter for a ten million dollar bond issue, the proceeds to be used in highway work.

In illustrating his plan he used the building of a school, which would benefit the coming generations and which through a bond issue they would help to pay. The roads to be built out of the money raised through bonds would also benefit the children of this generation, and they should have a part in paying for it.

While in Little Falls, Mr. Murphy consulted with the County Highway Engineer of Morrison county, J. E. Viner, relative to a detour of trunk highway No. 27 between Belle Prairie and Brainerd, which now passes through Ft. Ripley.

The detour proposed would leave Belle Prairie over state road No. 8, which would connect at the Crow Wing-Morrison county line with state road No. 1, better known to Brainerd residents as 13th street.

State road No. 8 in Morrison county needs only three miles of grading to connect it with the 13th street road, and this is to be done in the spring.

This detour would give Brainerd a greater outlet, and shorten the distance to Belle Prairie by about two miles over the present road through Ft. Ripley.

FANNING WITH ARRELL

SPORT KINGS THAT KEPT CROWNS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 30—With the exception of golf and boxing, leaders in most sports remained in possession of their honors through 1922.

There was practically a new list of champions in football, but that is such an unstable game that many annual changes are forced by natural conditions. Professional baseball retained most of its leading clubs and tennis had no important changes.

In the college field, rowing and track and field, two major sports found the same powers in command.

Winning of the two major league pennants by New York clubs on successive years established a new record for baseball. The Giants, in winning their second successive world's championship, also accomplished a feat that hadn't been equalled in several years.

Baltimore ran away with the International League pennant and won the "little world series" from St. Paul, the pennant winners of the American Association.

*****

Football had its greatest years and the outstanding sectional teams, if they are disputed as champions, were:

East—Princeton.
Middlewest—Iowa and Michigan.
South—Vanderbilt.
Missouri Valley—Nebraska.
Pacific Coast—California.

*****

Familiar faces were all found in familiar places after a most successful year of tennis. The list of champions below found only one change and that was because William T. Tilden did not defend his British title:

Davis Cup Champions—United States.
World's Singles Champion—William T. Tilden.
World's Woman Champion—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen.
American Woman's Champion—Mrs. Molla Mallory.
British Singles Champion—Gerald L. Patterson.

*****

All the golf crowns changed hands during a spectacular and most interesting season which saw the rapid rise of young players and the decline of the "old guard." The close of the season found:

World's Champion—Gene Sarazen.
British Open Champion—Walter Hagen.
American Open Champion—Sarazen.
P. G. A. Champion—Gene Sarazen.
Amateur Champion—Jesse Sweetser.
Amateur Woman Champion—Miss Glenna Collett.

*****

California won the national and the eastern intercollegiate track and field championship for the second time and the rowing eight of the United States Naval Academy won its third title.

*****

Passage of Georges Carpentier, Johnny Buff and Gene Tunney as ring champions were unusual developments of the year in pugilism. Carpentier dropped all his title when he was knocked out by Battling Siki; Johnny Buff lost his flyweight title to Pancho Villa and Harry Greb beat Gene Tunney for the light heavyweight title.

DANCED THE TANGO

Gloria Swanson and Rodolph Valentino are Partners

The pleasure seekers at Catalina Island, famous Pacific coast resort, were the recipients of a terpsichorean treat, one evening during the filming of "Beyond the Rocks," the Paramount picture starring Gloria Swanson, and showing at the Lyceum theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The company, under the direction of Sam Wood, had gone to the island to film ocean scenes for this picture, adapted from the novel by Elinor Glyn.

A ball was given at one of Avalon's most palatial hotels and the members of the staff and cast of the picture, after a strenuous day's work, joined the pleasure seekers for an evening's laxation.

The feature of the evening was the perfect dancing of Gloria Swanson, the star, and Rodolph Valentino, her leading man in this picture. Miss Swanson is a charming dancer and Mr. Valentino has made dancing one of his foremost accomplishments. His rendition of the Tango will be recalled in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse."

Jack Holt and Bob Deaniels in "North of the Rio Grande"

The story—Two blue ribbon horses are stolen from the ranch of Col. Haddington, who is killed by one of the raiders. Bob, his son, vows vengeance. He becomes head of band. He turns his gold which he gets from bad ranchers over to Father Hillaire at Refugio Mission. Here he meets the daughter of the man who later turns out to be "The Black Rustler," who is stealing cattle from his friend the while posing as "coming clean." The hero's discovery of his identity and his attempt to save him from "a rope party," takes up the rest of the action. "North of the Rio Grande" will be shown at the Lyceum tonight and Saturday.

IF FIERY, ITCHY OR ROUGH USE SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Menthosulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place. Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a jar of Rowles Menthosulphur at any drug store.—Advt.

Was a Good Judge of Liquor

"Since a young man I had a liking for liquor and was considered a pretty good judge of it at one time, but constant drinking gave me stomach trouble which became chronic. My stomach would have been a valuable addition to a gas factory. Doctors did not seem to relieve me. One day my druggist got me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I am now as good as new." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and all leading druggist.
